

As a paying subscriber to XM satellite radio, I find the service immensely useful and a terrific adjunct to my traditional broadcast radio. Please do not allow NAB to stifle innovation by squelching progressive developments in the area of information services.

In the name of taxpaying Americans everywhere, I urge you to reject the NAB petition (04-160), as it is without merit and constitutes merely a feeble attempt at protectionism and restraint of trade.

Sincerely,
Otto Fad